

TO ALL CHURCHES IN THE ANNAPOLIS-DIGBY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION:

The Inglisville Baptist Church, which has been a Preaching Station under the Lawrencetown Pastorate, since the 1870's, applied to the Annapolis-Digby Baptist Association Council, to ask the Council to recommend to the Association that their duly formed Inglisville Baptist Church be recognized as a member of the Association.

The Church members met several times with the Regional Minister, Rev. Ron Baxter, who has advised the Church on the steps to be taken in order to be recognized. The Church supplied the Clerk of the Association with a copy of their Constitution, a list of their Church Officers and their Church Covenant. The Inglisville Church brought representatives to the Council meeting on October 23, 2009, at Annapolis Royal where they were able to talk to Council members, ask questions and answer any questions the Council members might have. Rev. Ron Baxter explained how the members of the Inglisville Church came to the decision of going on their own.

MOTION: Rev. Randy Legassie made a motion, seconded by Rev. Don Robertson that the Council recommend that the duly formed Inglisville Baptist Church be granted membership in the Annapolis-Digby Baptist Association; and that the vote be carried out by the Association churches via e-mail and regular mail, so that the response of churches will be back and tabulated by the end of December, with deadline for voting to be completed by November 30. CARRIED.

PLEASE NOTE:

Please be advised, that according to the New Constitution, adopted May 30, 2009, each church will conduct a vote of its membership to accept or reject the motion granting membership in the Annapolis-Digby Baptist Association to the Inglisville Baptist Church, and will send the result of that vote to the Clerk via e-mail or regular mail no later than November 30, 2009. A two-third majority vote of member churches is necessary for granting Association membership to the Inglisville Baptist Church.
